DIVISION I

SCOTTSBURG HIGH SCHOOL TOTEM

“

A strong theme and strong photo editing earn a Hoosier Star for the 2015 Totem. Photo content is consistently strong, and photo cropping was a challenge met and answered.

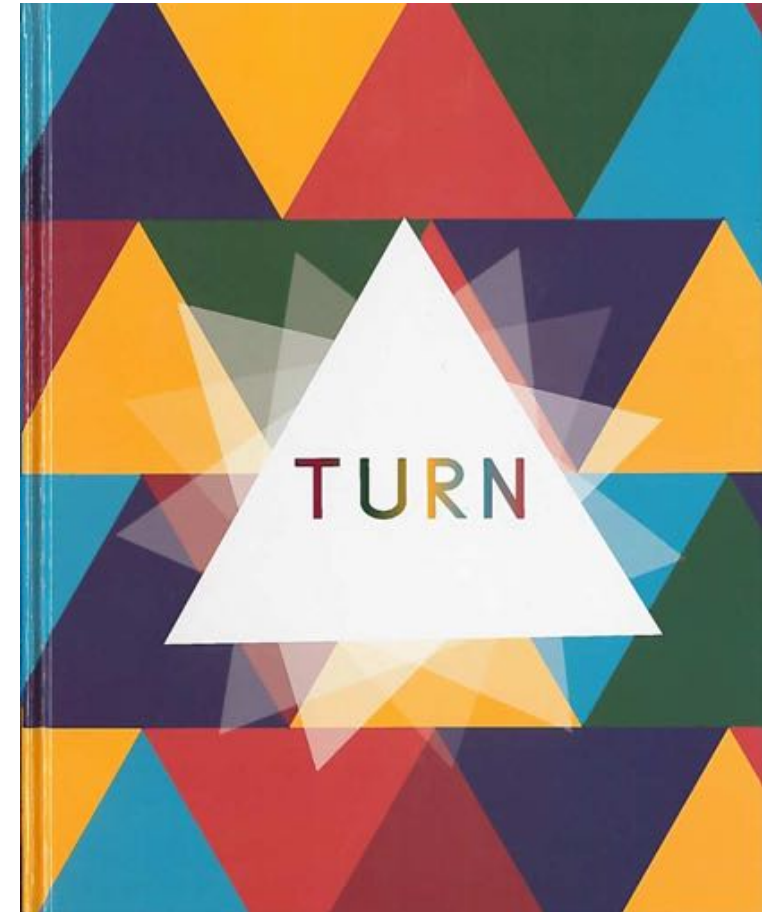

Winners

DIVISION I

PAOLI JR. & SR. HIGH SCHOOL HILLCREST

“

MUNSTER HIGH SCHOOL PARAGON

“

The 2015 Paragon is rich in detail, and it is already a keepsake for its readers. Its copy is sparkles, with profiles, nuggets and detailed captions. The book capitalizes upon available space, not to crowd content, but to prioritize it and make it digestible.

DIVISION III

COLUMBUS NORTH HIGH SCHOOL LOG

“

I got lost in the 2015 Log for all the right reasons. The comprehensive coverage, the diverse faces, the engaging stories and the fascinating approaches connected me with your school year. It's a great read now, and the content will only grow in value.

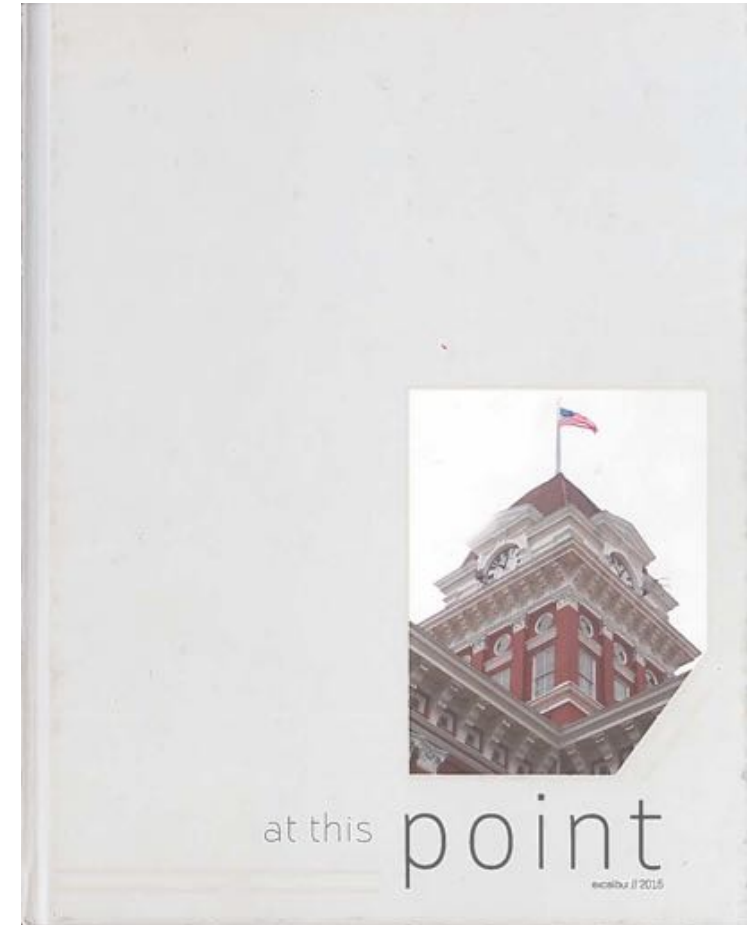

Winners

DIVISION III

CROWN POINT HIGH SCHOOL EXCALIBUR

“

Fundamentals win championships, and the 2015 Excalibur confirms that philosophy. The book launches with a gorgeous cover, which is then supported with photos, features and captions that are abundant in detail. This book is elegant and simple in its presentation. It allows content to shine.

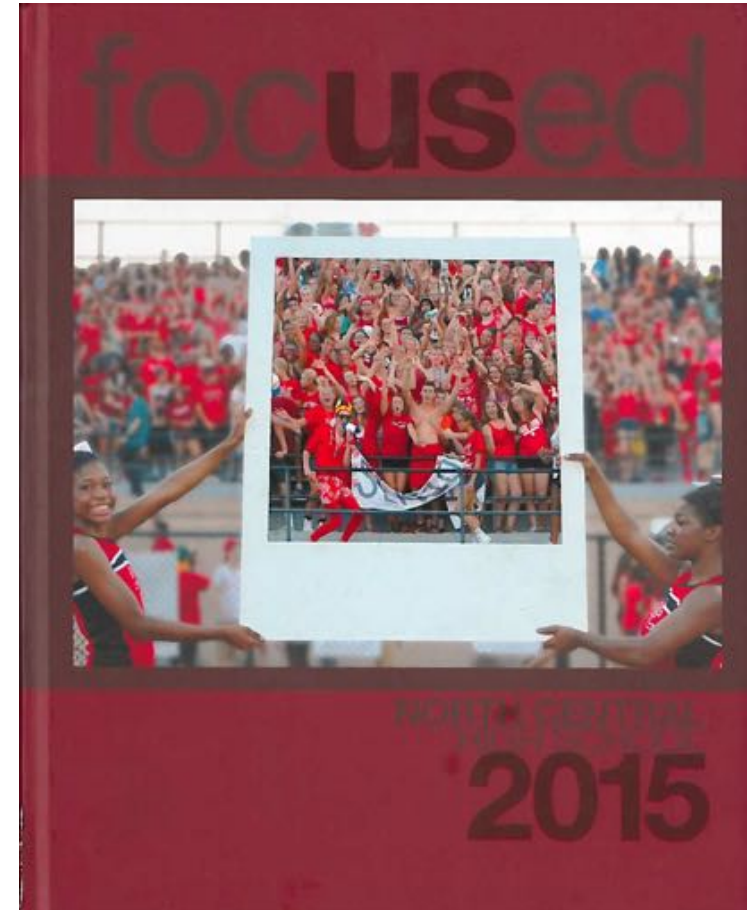

Winners

DIVISION III

NORTH CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL NORTHERNER

“

Exceptional environmental portraits distinguish the 2015 Northerner, and they anchor simple designs that introduce compelling features on a wide range of North Central students. The cover illustration introduces a simple theme that launches a great yearbook.
